Die Monstronauten

Hello, I'm

KNOX.

I'm your energy booster!

If you find yourself thinking,
'I can't do this!' or if something doesn't work out quite as you'd like straight away,
then I'm here for you!

When you try something new and don't get it right at first go

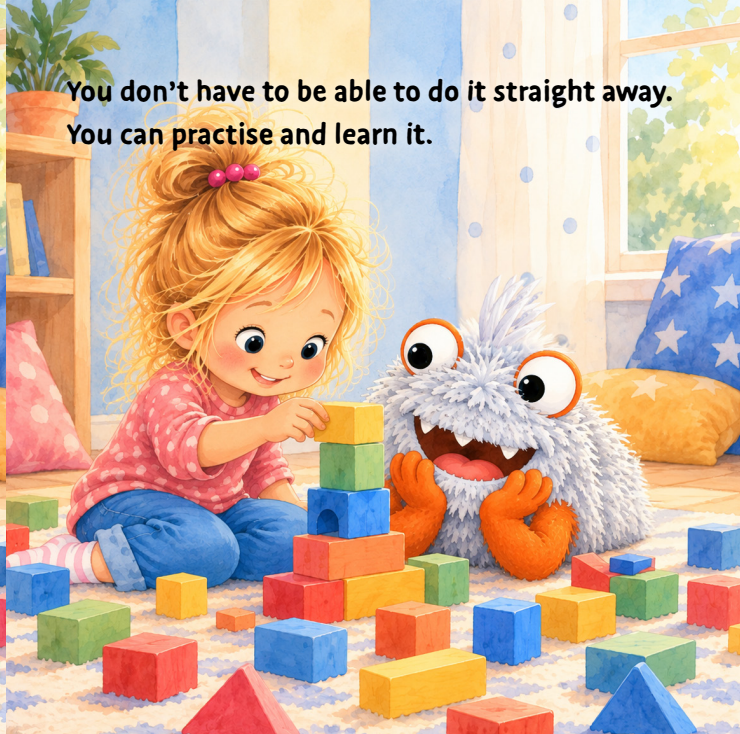
Then I'll find you and remind you:

That's fine.
Take your time!

You don't have to be able to do it straight away.
You can practise and learn it.



And when you do succeed,
I'll be celebrating with you!
And if it doesn't work out today,
you're allowed to take a break.
We'll try again another day.
I'm always here for you.

Die Monstronauten

Every monster has a special strength and helps you get through the day.

Together, we're a strong team!

Get to know the others too, they're looking forward to meeting you!
